

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION OF GRAIN DEALER CLAIM FORM
(KEEP FOR YOUR INFORMATION)

Page 1

1. Seller's Name:

- a. If individual, state your full first, middle and last names. Note commonly used nickname, if any. [If there is a landlord/tenant relationship, each person must file a separate claim form.]
- b. If true partnership (with Federal Tax I.D. number), state the full name of the partnership and the full first, middle and last names of each person. A copy of your Partnership Agreement must be sent with your claim. [If the claimant is an informal partnership (no Federal Tax I.D. number), each person involved must file a separate claim form.]
- c. If corporation, state the name of the corporation and the full name and the position of the corporate officer filing the claim.
- d. If the claim is completed on behalf of a third party, an executed power of attorney must be attached.

2. Address:

State your complete address including house number, street name, rural route number, box number, town, state and zip code. The house and street name or rural route number (which ever is applicable) must be shown in addition to the Box number as checks issued will be sent by certified mail, which cannot be sent to a Box number.

3. Telephone number:

Full number including area code [(xxx) xxx -xxxx].

4. Social Security number or Federal Tax I.D. number:

- a. All claimants filing as an individual must state their social security number.
- b. All claimants filing as a partnership, corporation, estate, or trust, must state their tax identification number.

5. Documents:

List the documents that you have to represent your claim. If your claim is for grain for which an NSF (non-sufficient funds) check was issued, list the check number. Also, list the settlement sheet number(s) on which the grain is listed that the check was issued for. If your claim is for grain listed on a settlement sheet for which a check has not been issued, show only the settlement sheet number and the total of the bushels listed on the settlement sheet. It is only necessary to enter each scale ticket if neither a check or settlement sheet receipt has been made out for your grain.

6. Prepayments/Advances:

Record here any prepayments or advances you have received for the grain listed in Item No. five of this form.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION OF GRAIN DEALER CLAIM FORM
(KEEP FOR YOUR INFORMATION)

Page 2

7. Indicate Documentation:

a. Photocopies of the documents listed in Item No. five and Item No. six must be sent with your claim. Mark the appropriate box to show what type of documents you are sending with the claim form to support your claim.

b. Examples of "Other" documents: sales tickets, purchase confirmation forms, Credit-sale contracts (deferred payment contracts, price-later contracts, basis contracts, minimum price contracts, etc.), or any other forms needed to support the bushel amount or value (price) of your claim.

8. Signature:

This claim form must be signed and notarized. Only one signature is required unless you are a member of a legal partnership and the partnership agreement requires more than one person's signature. If more than one signature is required, attach an additional sheet with the necessary notarized signature(s).

If you have any questions on how to complete this form, please call: (515)281-5987. Office hours are 8:00 A.M. thru 4:30 P.M., Monday thru Friday.

BEFORE MAILING:

Be sure that you have enclosed all your documents as mentioned in Item No.6, that you have had your signature notarized and that you have completed the grain dealer claim form. This claim form may be returned by ordinary mail.

If you have both a warehouse(storage) claim and a grain dealer claim, both claim forms can be returned together by certified mail. It is required for a warehouse claim to be returned by certified mail to be eligible for consideration against any receivership.

NOTE: IF YOU HAVE BOTH A WAREHOUSE AND A GRAIN DEALER CLAIM, THE TOTAL OF BOTH TYPES OF CLAIMS WILL BE FIGURED AGAINST THE LIMIT OF $150,000.00 PAID BY THE INDEMNITY FUND.